Some Frequently Asked Questions

Is there any cost? City Reformed is footing the bill for the entire event, so there is no cost for participants, whether members of our congregation or not.

Why do we need to sign up? Food will be provided by a local caterer and we are committed to give them a final number for the event by today.

What will the evening look like? When we arrive at 5:00 pm, there will be an hour for socializing, and connecting. There are quite a few people ("alumni") coming in from out of town who will be eager to see old friends. The buffet dinner is scheduled for 6:00 pm, and we will begin a program when everyone has gone through the line once and people are settled. The program will include some testimonies, singing, a reflection on this milestone, and a short video to recognize the event. We expect that it will end close to 7:40 pm. Following the program, we will continue to socialize until 9:00 pm.

Are kids welcome? Kids are absolutely welcome. There will be a cry/play room available for kids who need to move around a little more, but no planned activities or oversight.

What should I wear? It is not our intention to make this a highly formal event, but the nature will add some gravity to our attire choices. "Business casual" may be a helpful guide, not dissimilar to Sunday mornings.
